

Story of Economic Freedom

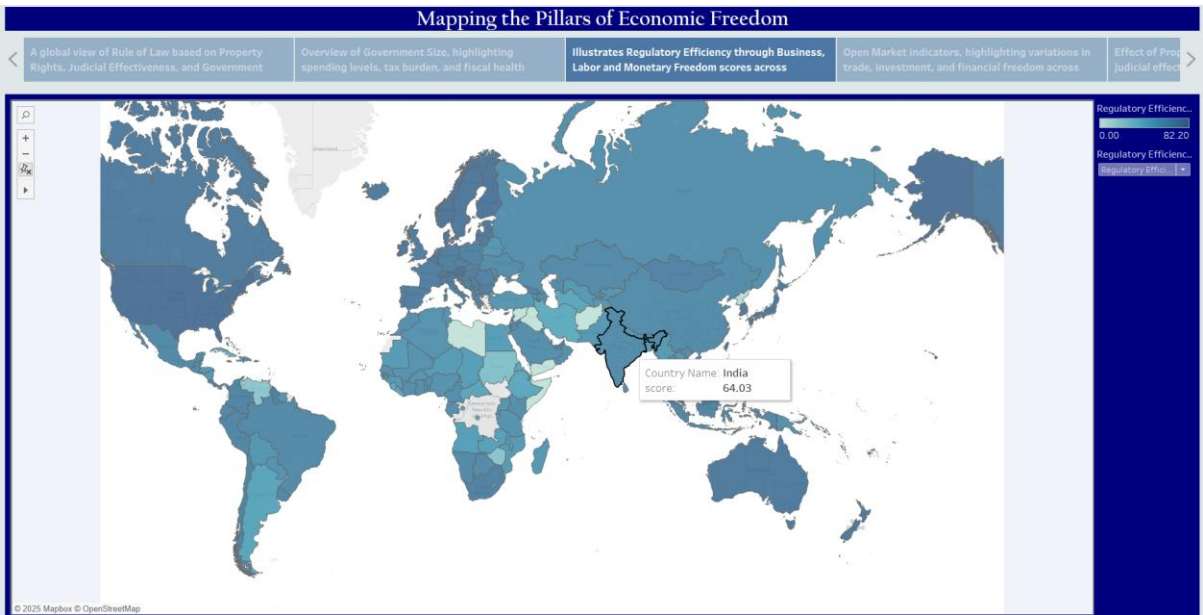

A global view of Rule of Law based on Property Rights, Judicial Effectiveness, and Government Integrity

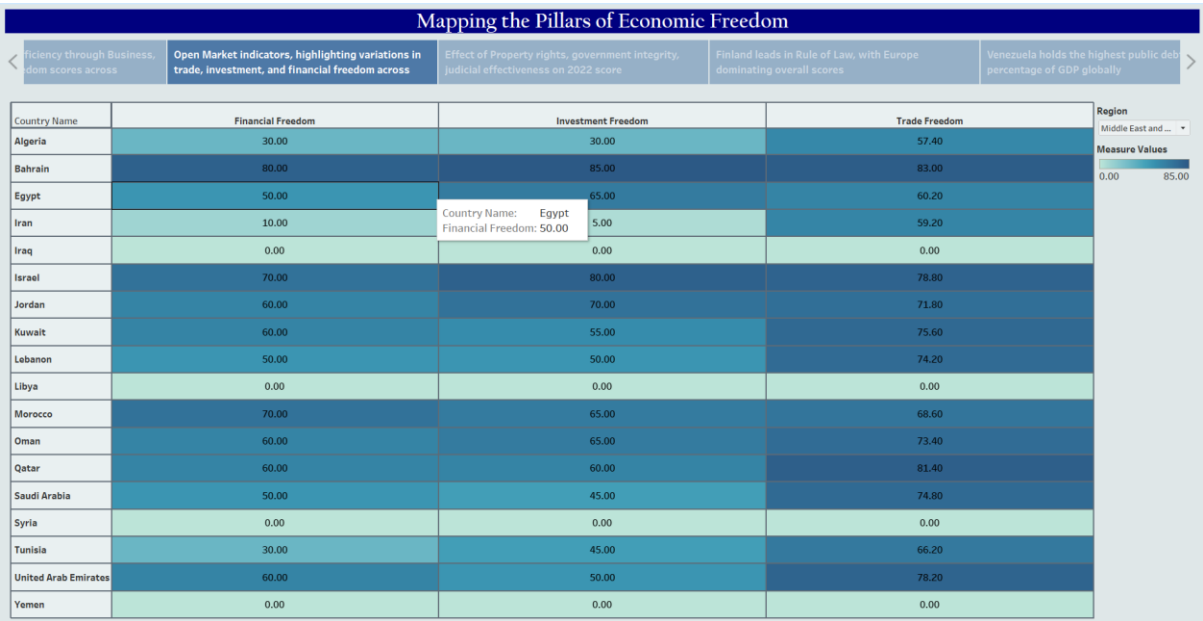

Overview of Government Size, highlighting spending levels, tax burden, and fiscal health across countries

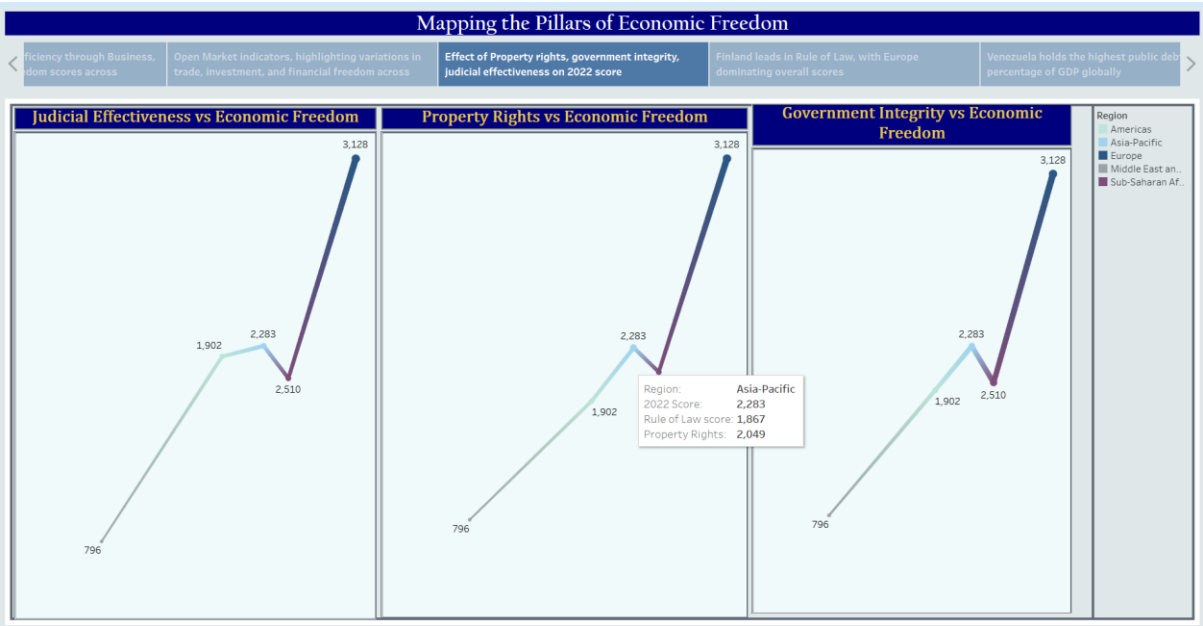

Illustrates Regulatory Efficiency through Business, Labor and Monetary Freedom scores across countries

Open Market indicators, highlighting variations in trade, investment, and financial freedom across countries

Effect of Property rights, government integrity, judicial effectiveness on 2022 score

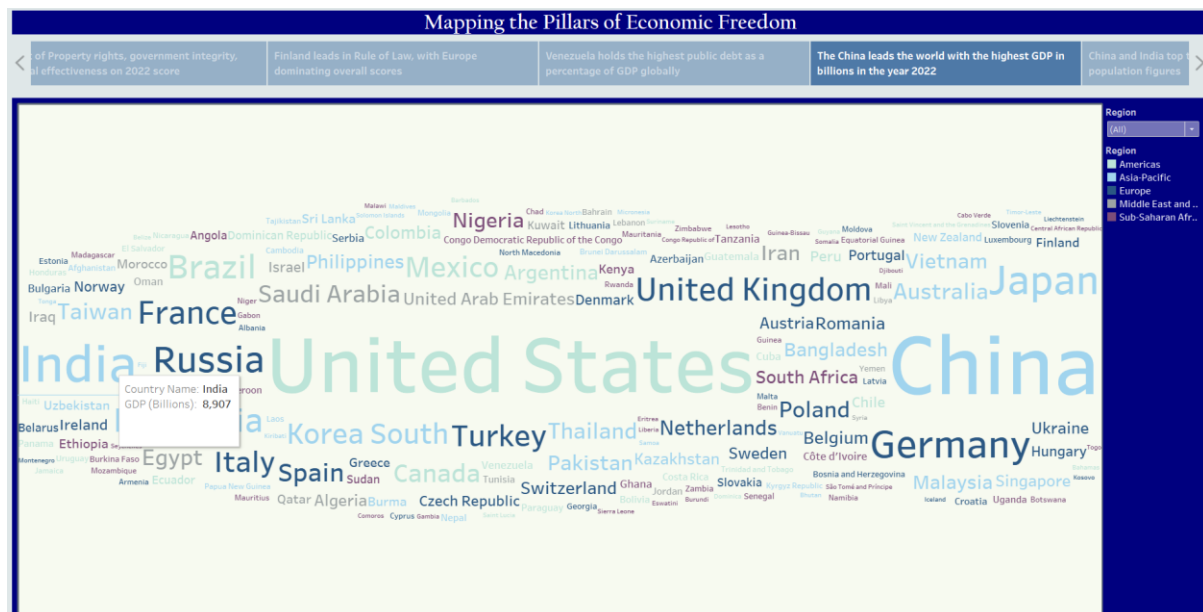

Finland leads in Rule of Law, with Europe dominating overall scores

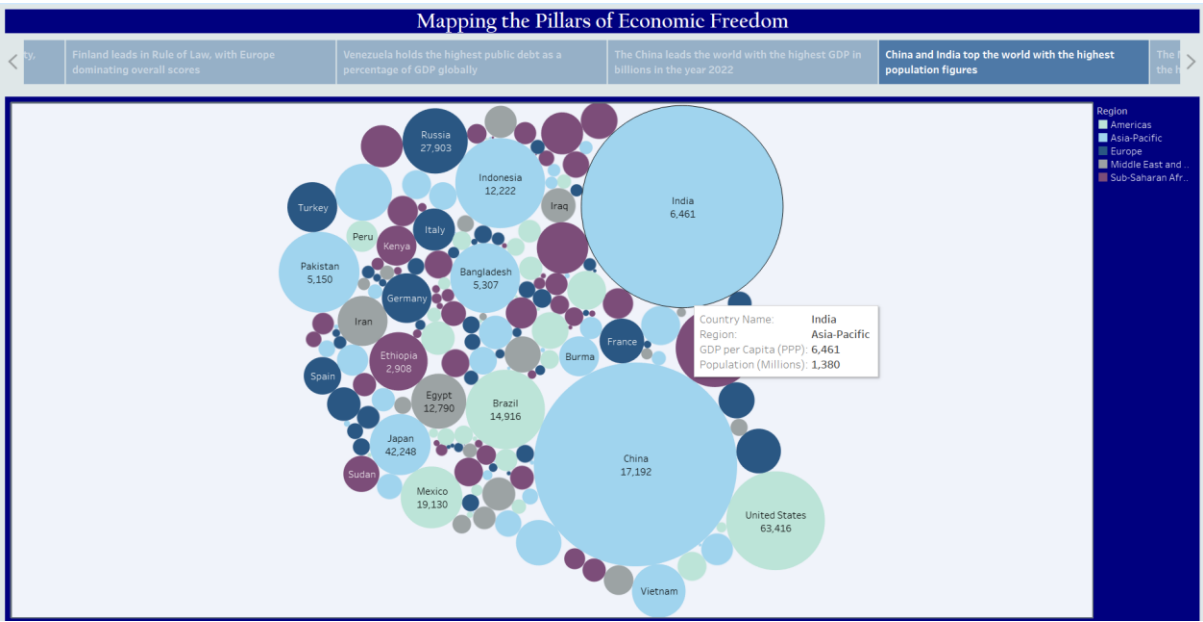

Venezuela holds the highest public debt as a percentage of GDP globally

The China leads the world with the highest GDP in billions in the year 2022

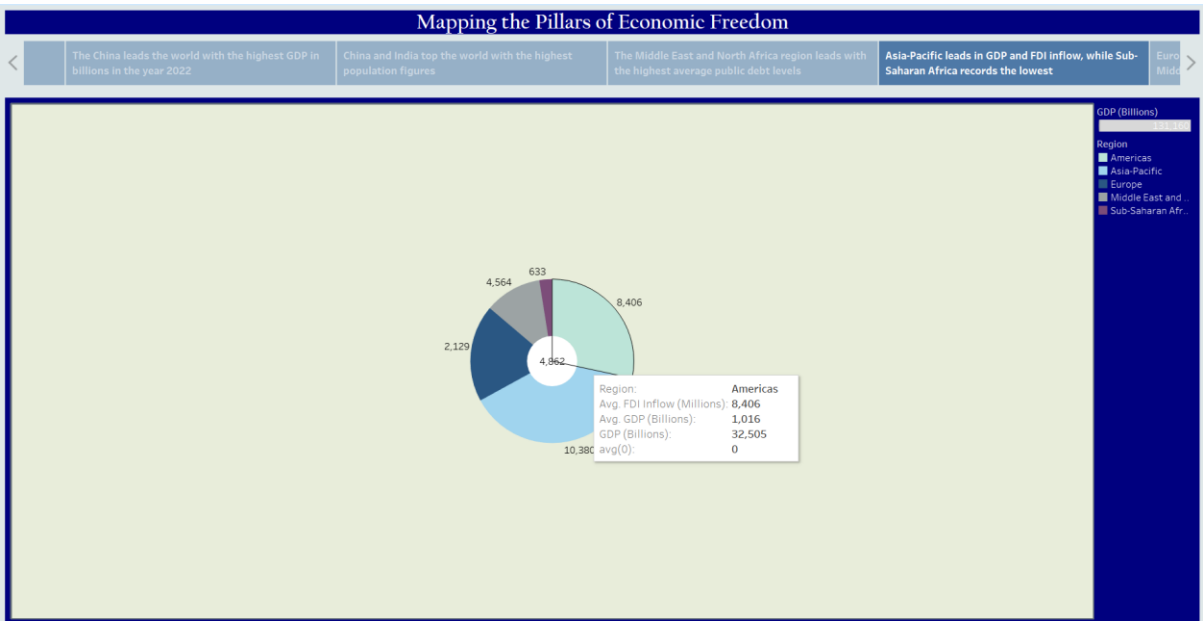

China and India top the world with the highest population figures

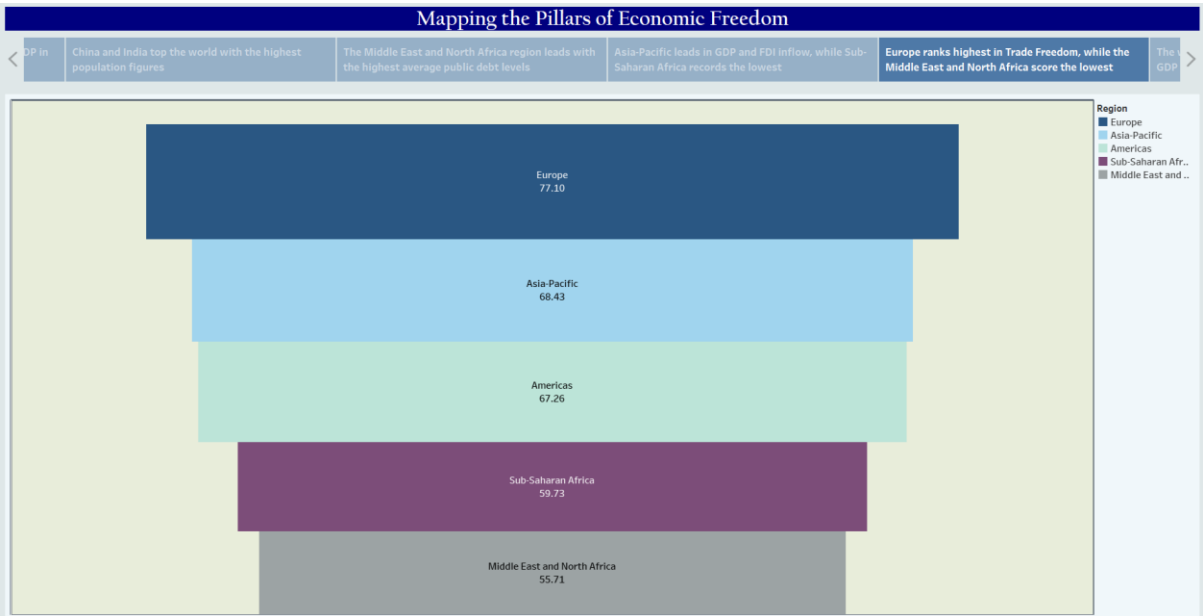

The Middle East and North Africa region leads with the highest average public debt levels

Asia-Pacific leads in GDP and FDI inflow, while Sub-Saharan Africa records the lowest

Europe ranks highest in Trade Freedom, while the Middle East and North Africa score the lowest

The waterfall chart illustrates the running total of GDP per capita across countries

